ORDER:

In the reference read above, Sri Kanukurthi Lakshmi Narasinga Rao, Founder Trustee and Sri Kanukurthi Sanyasi Madhava Rao, Family Trustee of Sri Kanakurthivari Satram, Vizianagaram have stated that Sri Kanukurthivari Choultry is their family institution established by their grand father late Sri Kanukurthi Lakshmi Narasinga Rao Panthulugaru in the year 1925 in a piece of land taken from the then Rajas of Vizianagram.

2. The choultry was being used for providing free accommodation to Brahmin students coming from other states appearing for Ándhra Metric examination at Vizianagaram and also for a day's stay for the passers by pilgrims. It is also a place for visiting the Spiritual gurus of Uttaradi Math, Karnataka who established the Peetham of their presiding Diety "Sri Mula Rama" for performing Archana and Pada Puja of the Peethadhipatulu.

3. They represented that of late the maintenance of the Choultry has become difficult as the choultry is in a dilapidated condition and the family members are old aged.

4. They also informed that the Uttaradi Math, Karnataka has given an undertaking in favour of the Kanukurthi family to hold and manage the Institution in an effective manner for the purpose of achieving the objectives of the Institution. The Institution will be utilized for the purpose of propagation of Sanathana Dharma, Vedic Sampradaya apart from other Social activities as envisaged by the Founder of the Institution and hence they requested to transfer the Satram, to Sri Uttaradi Math, Karnataka for better upkeep of the Institution.

5. The Government has carefully examined the request of the Founder Family Members of Sri Kanakurthivari Satram, Vizianagaram. It is observed that the Uttaradi Mutt which is a nearly 1000 years old institution and the present Swamiji is one of the most respected saints of India. The Mutt has a well established Administration system. Therefore, the mutt can take care of the Satram in a better manner.
